SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE ON CABLE IN MAY

Endlessly entertaining, pulse-soaring, heart-stopping, side-splitting, romantic high drama!

Well, that just about sums up, in a very large nutshell, what cable television is all about this month.

With a host of great films premiering this May, as shown below, and, as usual, some terrific new programmes and series (see Videotron Pick on Cable), there really is something for everyone on cable!

In addition, we also bring you news of how you can save pots of money on your existing phone bill with Videotron's first class telephone service, now available in more areas around Southampton (see page 3).

Plus, in this month's Videotron competition, there's a chance to go to one of the top UK golfing tournaments — see page 4 for all the details.

Wet, Wet, Wet!

From jet-skiing and knee-boarding to fishing and para-sailing — there's sun, sea, surf and sports with a splash on Get Wet, a brand new show on Discovery.

It features the wild and wacky — from a surfing dog and a 76-year-old senior surfer to a bizarre beach party! Take a look at the Get Wet getaways and lifestyles of the wet and wealthy around the world.

Dive in to discover the underwater wonders of the deep — the dolphins, sea lions and killer whales of the Pacific and the alligators of the Everglades. If it's in, on or under water it's in Get Wet, Mondays at 7pm and Thursdays at 5pm, beginning on Monday 3 May, only on Discovery.

Tourists hear the call of the whale

Did you know that more money is made from watching whales than killing them for commercial profit?

In 1991, 4 million people in 30 countries spent $317 million on tourism related to whale watching.

During May, the International Whaling Commission will meet in Japan to discuss the future of whaling as Japan and Norway put the seven-year-old ban on whaling under pressure.

To coincide with the IWC convention, Discovery presents a special selection of programmes highlighting the plight of the leviathans of the deep in Whale Watch, running from Monday 10 - Sunday 16 May, starting with Challenge of the Seas: The Sea of Whales on Monday 10 May at 4pm.

Coming down to earth

Have you ever considered that the human race could be the result of a huge alien genetic experiment?

Probably not, but Sky News investigates this very possibility in light of thousands of UFO sightings around the world!

Don't miss this fascinating one-hour UFO special on Sunday 19 May at 7pm.

Lessons in success

If you're seeking the inspiration to change course, Adult Learners Week is the focus on The Learning Channel between 10 - 16 May.

The week's line-up includes programmes on assertiveness training, business management, design and technology, becoming a successful author, working mothers and the 19 Guide to Careers in TV.

Please tick
YES NO

Do you want to save money on existing phone bills?

Do you want a fully itemised bill every month?

Do you want faster call connections and clearer lines?

Do you want enhanced features such as Call Waiting or Call Barring?

Do you want the very highest standards of customer care from a local company?

If the answer is 'yes' to any of these questions, you won't be disappointed!

Videotron can now offer its high quality, cost-saving telephone service to even more people.

This is terrific news for those living and working within the following areas: Bassett, Eastleigh, Bitterne, Portswood, Shirley, Coxford, Swaythling, Millbrook, Southampton City Centre and Freemantle.

You can make savings of up to 15 per cent on average, when compared to BT's standard tariff.

What's more, if you are a cable TV subscriber you will make a further 5 per cent saving, representing an average 20 per cent saving on your current phone bills.

We also offer a fully itemised billing service every month so that you know how much you have spent, when you've spent it and the destination of all calls.

In short, you have greater control of your outgoings!

The latest digital telephone technology means improved sound quality and faster call connections.

This state-of-the-art network needs less maintenance too, a saving which we can then pass on to you!

Videotron also offers a whole host of enhanced network features including Call Waiting, which tells you when another caller is trying to contact you when you are already on a call — a handy feature which also allows you to switch between the first and second caller.

You never know who or where your children are ringing when you're out — the Call Barring feature allows you to bar long distance international calls or those expensive premium services such as 0898 numbers, which means keeping phone bills down.

Plus, using the Short-Code Dialling feature permits you to programme in the telephone numbers you use regularly, saving time.

In addition, Videotron customers enjoy the highest standards of customer care and a rapid response to service, normally within four hours during normal working hours.

More than 150,000 people and businesses are now enjoying the benefits of cable telephone services around the UK today... they know it makes sense!

Golf for it!

If you're striving for that par-fect handicap, a few tips from world famous professional golfer and commentator Peter Alliss, won't go amiss.

Filmed in Florida, this brand new series looks at the problems of playing golf for the everyday golfer.

From tee shots to swings to putting and bunkers, each week a leading golf instructor gives two people a lesson on an aspect of this popular game.

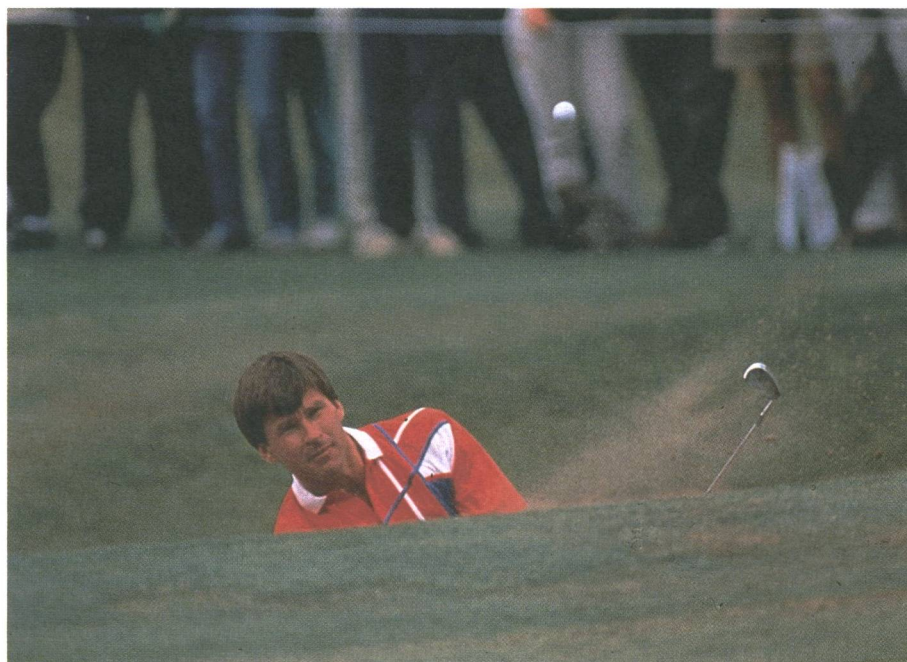

Plus, Peter Alliss shares his thoughts on a variety of features including slow play, practice facilities, golf for the disabled and winter golf, and looks at some of the golfing gadgets available to players, including clubs, practice nets and caddies.

So you Want to Play Golf with Peter Alliss is a six-part series showing on Fridays at 1pm from 7 May, on The Learning Channel.

You are a winner

Congratulations to Mr M Maidment of Eastleigh and Mr J Blair of Southampton. They have both won copies of Clive James' book Fame in the Twentieth Century as winners in the UK Gold competition published in our customer pages of the March Cable Guide.

See your heroes in action

If you're an avid golfer you're bound to be a dedicated viewer of the new Eurosport, which promises to bring you over 200 hours of golfing action from more than 25 golf tournaments around the world this summer.

It tees off in May with the Benson and Hedges (6 - 9 May), the Italian Open (20 - 23 May) and the Volvo PGA Championship (28 - 31 May).

Eurosport's comprehensive golf coverage will also bring you the action from the PGA European Tour and the Ryder Cup this September.

In this month's competition, Eurosport has promised one lucky Videotron customer a pair of tickets to one of the top golf tournaments of the year, taking place in the UK.

The prize will be either the Dunhill British Masters in Woburn (31 May - 6 June), the Murphy's British Open in Warwickshire (16 - 21 August) or the Ryder Cup from The Belfry, Birmingham (20 - 26 September).

Details of the golfing tournament will be confirmed to the winner by telephone in the last week of May.

To enter, just answer the following questions and send your completed coupon to Golf Competition, Videotron, Videotron House, 11 - 29 Belmont Hill, Lewisham, London SE13 5AU, by Friday 21 May 1993. First correct drawn entry will win.

Weekdays 9.00am,

NO-NONSENSE detective Frank Burnside (Christopher Ellison) certainly upset some of his colleagues with his less-than-sympathetic remarks following the death in March of Viv Martella (Nula Conwell) on ITV.

Tune in to UK Gold this month and you will see that the bull-headed CID man has always ruffled feathers with his rough-and-ready policing. The channel is showing two Bill stories from 1989 that show Burnside methods that would please Dirty Harry.

In In the Cold (Thursday 6th), Burnside wants a quick result to the mystery of a woman's body found in a railway yard by a night security officer, Wallis.

Burnside starts to believe Wallis is a pervert and should be made to confess to murder. Is Burnside's interrogation and pressure going to cause an innocent man to confess?

Then in Private Wars (Wednesday 12th) Burnside is in the wars himself when he spots an intruder on an industrial plant and gives chase. He is attacked and knocked out by a security guard.

It turns out that the guard was a man that Burnside arrested for violence and robbery six years before. The DI is convinced that a robbery is being plotted by the guard and two accomplices.

Will Burnside wait for several months and see how the 'job' pans out? Or will a bit of rough justice suit him just as well? ■

Hold your horses, Reba

Country Music Television

Seven days a week, 24 hours

COUNTRY SUPERSTAR Reba McEntire studied classical violin and piano before becoming one of America's favourite singers.

'I wanted to get as much educational music as I possibly could,' recalls Reba, 'because I had a feeling that I would have a career in music someday.'

But why country?

'That's what I grew up in,' she explains. 'I was raised on a ranch in Oklahoma so it was natural for it to be country music.'

But music wasn't her only option. 'I rodeo'd off and on for 10 years and enjoyed it tremendously,' says Reba. 'But I had a natural ability at singing where I didn't have a natural ability at riding.'

She has also become a successful actress, her dramatic talent showing in many country videos seen on CMT Europe, including The Night the Lights Went Out in Georgia, Take It Back, The Heart Won't Lie (with Vince Gill) and Is There Life Out There, which examines the problems of women struggling to get an education while running a family at the same time.

'It's a very heavy song and it's touched a lot of people's hearts,' she says earnestly. 'Here in the States women have gone back to college after dropping out because of that video. The power of music is really amazing.'

'We're so delighted in the United States that you all have cable,' she enthuses.

'We are really thrilled and we hope you are enjoying our videos.' ■ JEREMY ISAAC

Monday 17th
8.00pm

JOAN COLLINS stars in Monte Carlo, the fictional account of how Russian-born chanteuse Katrina Petrovka becomes a spy for the allies on the eve of World War II, finding romance, danger and intrigue.

Heartbroken and remorseful memories of the love she once shared with her husband, an English intelligence officer who was murdered by the Nazis, cause Katrina to declare her own personal war of revenge. She wiffully uses her fame, charm and beauty as a front for her daring espionage activities.

Void of romance, Katrina's life is a whirlwind of cabaret parties, casino nights and beach club gatherings, where she entertains and socialises with high-level German and Italian officers.

But late at night, in her bedroom overlooking the Mediterranean, Katrina wires key data about her contacts to the British War Ministry office in London.

The four-hour mini-series was filmed on location in Paris and the South of France, and also stars George Hamilton as American writer Harry Prince, Lauren Hutton as divorcee Evelyn McIntire, Malcolm McDowell as an Irish mercenary and Peter (Harry Grout) Vaughan as a German businessman ■ Listomania rules!

IN OCTOBER 1947 the US House UnAmerican Activities Committee (HUAC) came to Hollywood to question the film industry about its politics.

A defiant group of writers, producers and directors challenged the Committee's right to probe their personal beliefs and were sent to prison for contempt of Congress, becoming known as the Hollywood Ten. The film industry was swept by a tidal wave of black-listing that ended careers and ruined lives.

Legacy of the Hollywood Blacklist

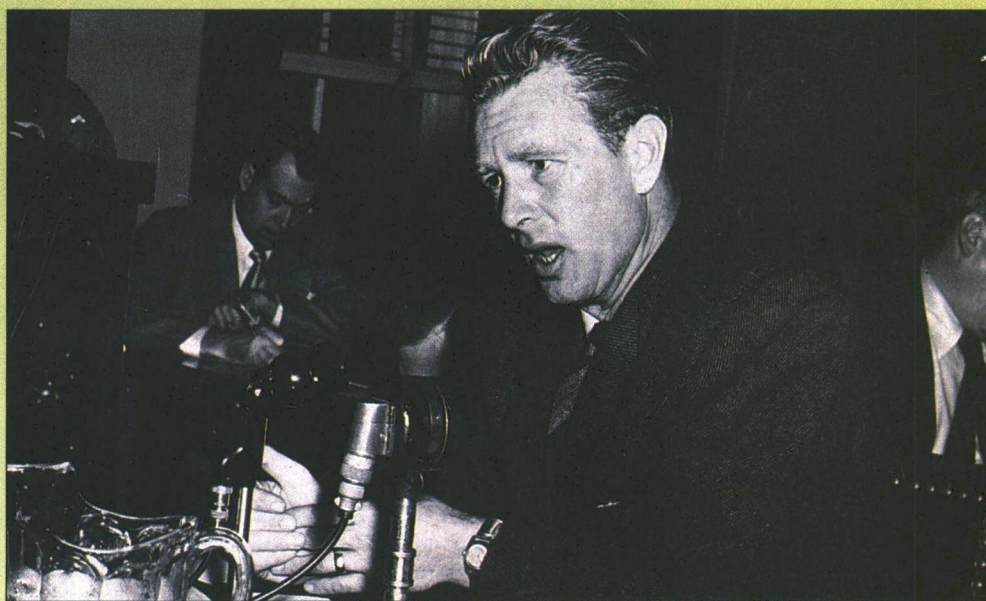

Friday 14th
11.00pm

Among the actors whose careers were destroyed included Larry Parks (The Jolson Story), Lionel Stander (Max from TV's Hart to Hart), Gale Sondergaard (Sherlock Holmes's Spider Woman) and John Garfield, star of

The Postman Always Rings Twice.

Today many of those brought before the Committee have died, but the effects of this ordeal live on for the families both of those who defied the Committee by defending their ideals, and those who decided to cooperate by betraying friends or colleagues.

Legacy of the Hollywood Blacklist recreates the feeling of the period and includes interviews with both 'friendly' and 'unfriendly' witnesses and the relatives of blacklist victims themselves. ■

A new kind of cable TV

A NEW KIND of television channel is launching on cable franchises across Britain this month.

Called The Cable Network (TCN), it will have a live radio-style rolling format with on-the-spot reports, interviews and phone-ins that offer the public a chance to participate and voice its views. TCN's studio is in a shopping mall in Bristol but the channel will also broadcast from its own roadshow at a different city in Britain every week.

'We will be able to interact with our viewers throughout the day,' says Patricia Douey, General Manager of TCN. 'We think that people will be able to identify very strongly with us.'

TCN starts broadcasting its afternoon segment at 1.00pm. The live action will be interspersed with comedies, soaps and game shows, with series including James Garner in Man of the People and Whoopi Goldberg (pictured right) in Bagdad Cafe.

Between 5.00pm and 8.00pm there will be the Cable World sequence, when cable operators will have the chance to show local programmes and competitions.

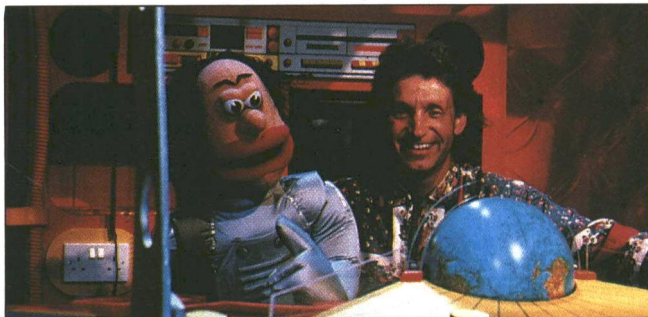

The evening line-up includes a live workout, sports, an agony uncle, video dating, fashion and motoring items. 'Our daytime programmes will have a lot to offer women at home with children,' says Ms Douey. 'The evenings will be male-orientated but there will also be lifestyle programmes, travel and fashion topics covered.'

TCN launches in most cable areas on Tuesday 4th May. Other cable franchises are negotiating to start broadcasting it soon. ■ weekends at 8.30am

TOP KIDS' TV personality Tommy Boyd is the first 'spacejock' to knock on the door of RatKan as it floats out in space and ask for admission to co-host The Children's Channel's exciting new programme RatKan II.

Together with Void the Android, Tommy will be beaming down a great mix of comedy, dramas, features, jokes and stories every day.

Tommy will be guest presenter until Monday 17th, when Gareth Jones takes over to give Void a helping hand.

On RatKan II anything can happen. It's a world of its own with all mod cons, including TV, video, sleeping quarters, a well-equipped kitchen, space sun deck, cold drinks machine, telephone and computer.

And watch out for such other delights as RatKan Snackattack recipes, conservation news with earthwatch, competitions and weird and wonderful news from around the galaxy with Intergalactic Datadesk, as well as a host of cartoons including Babar, Manu and The Houndcats. ■

Saturday 15th

BARMY BISCUIT baron and millionaire Uncle Bob, played by Frankie Howerd, makes two horrible families play a hilarious game of musical chairs in The Children's Channel's new comedy All Change.

Uncle Bob is dead but through an ingenious video he makes the posh and loathsome London family battle it out with the odious and vulgar Oldfields.

His fiendish plan? They must trade places and swap lives and lifestyles completely. ■

Trying to get the Zack!

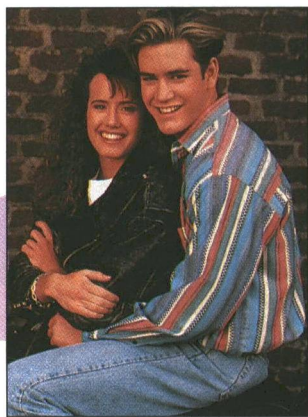

Saved by the Bell

Mondays to Thursdays
5.30pm

HEART-THROBS Zack and Slater hit the screens this month in the award-winning high school series Saved by the Bell.

Mark Paul Gosselaar (pictured right with Elizabeth Berkley who plays Jessie), who takes the part of Zack, didn't have much time to get used to the sudden attention the show brought him from frenzied female fans who mobbed the studio gates where the series was filmed.

But the blonde teenager, raised in California by his Dutch parents, keeps a cool head on his mature shoulders. There are many other things he would like to do besides act, such as motor-cross bike-racing, football, skiing and surfing.

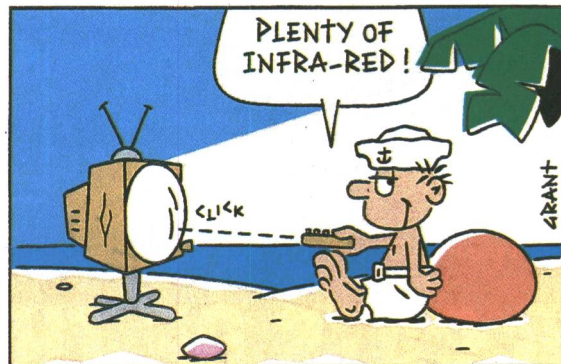

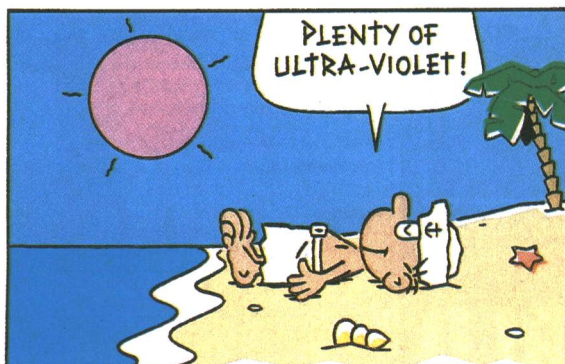

Mario Lopez (Slater), a dancer since age three, is also an acting veteran, but like the other kids in the series, he can't escape school. He has to keep up with his schoolwork while filming is in progress, with three hours of class each day.

The pair's May adventures include Zack finding out that the girl he likes is homeless, Slater winning a wrestling scholarship when his father wants him to go to West Point military academy, and a trip to a resort in Palm Springs for Jessie's father's wedding to a younger girl. ■

Striking Gold!

AS A KEEN watcher of UK Gold and an avid fan of classic cult series, I wondered if there were any plans to show classics like Auf Wiedersehen, Pet and The Persuaders. Although the amount of football currently being shown on cable TV may not please the female viewers among us, I would like to say how I enjoy the coverage of the Premier League as well as the internationals involving England [on Sky Sports]. Keep up the good work.

Steve Proberts
West Thamesmead, London

● UK Gold only has programmes made by the BBC or Thames TV. Auf Wiedersehen, Pet is from Tyne Tees. There are no immediate plans to show The Persuaders.

Trekker heaven

I HAVE BEEN an avid cable TV watcher for almost three years and only been disappointed once. This, I fear, was Sky's fault. My friends and I are great fans of Star Trek: The Next Generation. Imagine our surprise when after broadcasting the third series they suddenly started repeating the whole thing from series one. Can you tell me if Sky has any plans to show the fourth and fifth series of this brilliant programme? Other than this slight complaint the viewing is excellent.

Wendy Clark, Waddon, Croydon

● Sky One has acquired new Next Generation episodes (see daily listings starting page 50) and Star Trek: Deep Space Nine (starting later in the year).

Chris fills The Bill

JUST WANT TO say I am overjoyed that The Bill is on cable TV. I hope it goes on for a very long time. Is there any chance of showing the very first episodes of The Bill? My favourite is DI Burnside (Christopher Ellison). I think he is very funny. Does he come from Morden where he films The Bill? How about showing The Bill on Saturday as well?

Pat McCalla, Morden, Surrey

● UK Gold has shown all of the half-hour episodes of The Bill. There are no plans to show the early hour-long episodes. Ellison was born in Fulham.

Can't get no SAT-isfaction!

I HAVE SEEN a programme on SAT 1 which I like very much and would like to write to. Could you please tell me the address. I think having cable TV was the best investment I have ever made, there is always something of interest to watch.

E L Haka, Hall Green, Birmingham

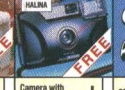

● The address is Otto-Schott Str 13, 6500 Mainz, Germany.

Powerslam!

Who's hot and who's not in the WWF – John Greenfield reveals all!

HI, WRESTLING FANS and welcome to the May issue of Powerslam, your one-stop wrestling update column.

Firstly we start on a truly sad note. The wrestler known as ANDRE THE GIANT has died in America. It is understood he suffered a heart attack while on tour. As many of you will know Andre had made a remarkable comeback after his WWF departure in the Mexico-based independent circuits. Many fans will remember him not only for his wrestling, but also his many film parts. Mr Andre will be missed.

OK fans, on a happier note and as anticipated the immortal HULK HOGAN has returned to the WWF and tag-teamed with 'Blood Brother' BRUTUS THE BARBER BEEFCAKE. Shades of the old megapowers tag alliance (Hogan and Savage). It appears Hogan's break into the movie world was not as successful as it was hoped to be. His last movie called Rough Stuff was pushed aside by the film Home Alone 2, and was released only on video as Mr Nanny. It would be fair to say Hogan is a better wrestler than actor!

Hogan's former adversary and real-life friend THE ULTIMATE WARRIOR has signed for a tour of South Africa and Australia throughout June, July and August of this year. This great star is sadly missed by WWF fans and none more than yours truly. The WWF-USWA cooperative has taken a step closer to amalgamation with the announcement that the USWA tag team champions THE MOONDOGS have put the USWA title on the line for none other than the NASTY BOYS. Should Saggs and Knobs be victorious, the contractual commitments would be extremely difficult to adhere to. However, we will wait and see the outcome.

THE MIGHTY JOHN TENTA (Earthquake), now sadly no longer with the WWF, is becoming a real fan favourite in the IWGP in Japan. Fans like big wrestlers in Japan and they do not come any bigger than Earthquake. While on the subject of big wrestlers Mr Fwis' latest acquisition YOKOZUNA has not only the HITMAN BRET HART to face but the HACKSAW JIM DUGGAN. A quick insight to the Duggan situation – as you saw on WWF Superstars – Duggan lost a match-up with the giant Japanese wrestler and as a direct result had to take six weeks leave to return to fitness. However on 9 March Jim Duggan appeared at the WWF venue at the Augusta Stadium, Georgia, to a standing ovation from a packed auditorium and won an opening match against DAMION DEMENTO. When will the ultimate revenge match be signed? My prediction: Summerslam 93.

At the same venue as Jim Duggan's return we saw the debut of the new tag team the BOXING TURTLES. Definitely one to watch out for in the future.

The bad guy clown DOINK (aka Matt Boume) is still in the sights of the Hawaiian powerhouse CRUSH.

Ex-WWF stars DAVY BOY SMITH and RAVISHING RICK RUDE met in the ring, although sadly in the WCW circuit. Davy Boy won. WWF fan favourite THE UNDERTAKER is on a collision course with the 7'11" GIANT GONZALEZ (aka El Gigante, ex-WCW). When you consider that Mark Calloway himself is 6'11" and some 300lbs, he looks small compared to the Giant Gonzalez. This is a grudge match.

WWF veterans TITO SANTANA, SERGEANT SLAUGHTER, RIC MARTEL, LUKE AND BUTCH (The Bushwackers), and PAPA SHONGO are all now back under contract with the WWF. RAMON ROUGEU (ex- the Rougeu Brothers) has a contract with the WWF and JERRY THE KING LAWYER (the current voice behind the camera in TV Tapings) to go back to the USWA circuit to defend his title, again adding fuel to the rumour of a USWA-WWF alliance.

TATANKA still remains unbeaten in the WWF, and has been feuding with SHAWN MICHAELS across the States. By the time you read this publication it is possible he will be the new WWF intercontinental champion. MR PERFECT and LEX LUGAR continue to do battle on the current WWF tour and the win ratio is very much even.

OK fans, that's about it for this month.

Sky Sports going for a hat-trick!

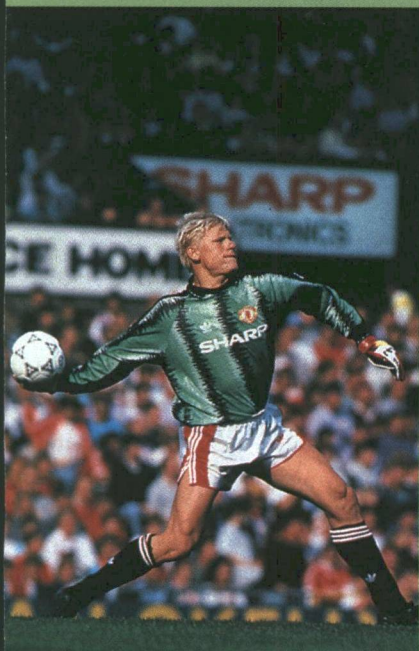

Sky Sports will show three live matches simultaneously if Norwich, Man United and Aston Villa are chasing the title on 9th May. Richard Keys, the presenter who plays up front on Sky's match days, looks back at a season that could have the most thrilling televised finale ever

TV FUNNY man and impressionist Rory Bremner was guest speaker at the recent Professional Footballers' Association dinner and he decided to fire some jokes at Sky Sports' coverage of the Premier League.

'BBC 13 million - Sky Sports 0,' laughed Rory. He laughed alone. His quip about the relative audiences of the two channels fell on deaf ears. The reason is simple. Sky Sports coverage of the Premier League in this its first season has been 'by the lads, for the lads'.

That description comes from Mr Premier League on Sky Sports, Richard Keys, who is ever present on the channel's revolutionary soccer broadcasting team which will top the century of live games if the much-vaunted triplecast comes off this month - Manchester United, Aston Villa and Norwich all live simultaneously on three Sky channels on the final Premier League

Peter Schmeichel

Paul McGrath

Sunday of the season. 'Sky Sports coverage of the Premier League isn't about showbiz,' says Keys. 'It's not darlings and loveys - it's for football fans. In pubs, in their armchairs and even at the grounds where our cameras are.

'I remember one Man U fan our interviewer found at an Oldham/Norwich game who said he's brought his son along because he wanted to see the dancing girls and the fireworks.

'Poor old Rory Bremner got it wrong that night at the PFA dinner. He was speaking to an audience who watch us week in, week out.'

And watch they do. Sky Sports may not go to every home in the country, but pass many a pub on a Monday night and see how many people you can count with their eyes on the newly installed TV in the corner.

Richard Keys made his face known to millions as a presenter of TVam, but in earlier lives was a sports journalist on Radio Piccadilly and even kicked a few shins for a top amateur football team, Coventry Sporting, hence his passion for Coventry City.

The total viewing figures are not his concern, his concern is the backroom team that puts his programme together at least twice a week.

'It used to take a week to rig a football game for TV, now we do two games in two days almost every week - sometimes more!' says Keys.

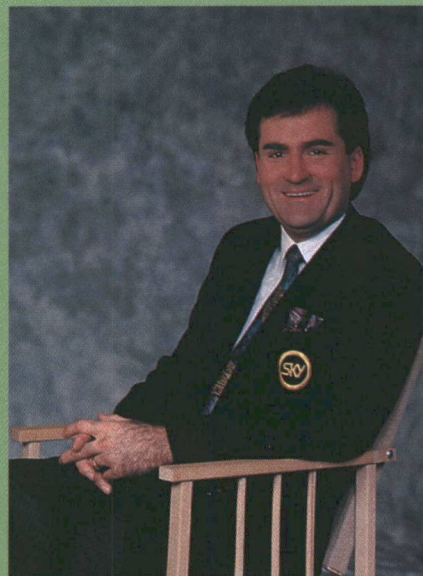

He believes the Premier League is tops for excitement despite its Italian competition on Channel 4 and ITV's Coca Cola Cup and Barclay's Football League coverage. 'The Italian games I found boring after a while when I used to cover them, while ITV's decision to stop a planned live Coca Cola Cup semi-final in March showed that no one can match our commitment,' says Keys.

So after a successful inaugural season, the Premier League live games have become a fixture for the real fans.

His fondest memory of this first season? 'Oh there have been so many from our live games, but I have to think of one edition of The Footballer's Football Show.

'We tried to name an all-time

Aston Villa boss Ron Atkinson

Richard Keys

World XI and got the likes of Best, Marsh, Law and Bobby Moore in the studio. The guys were arguing for hours after the show, such was their excitement. And I think we will all think of the late Bobby Moore at moments like that.'

Spoken like a true football fan.

Las Vegas showdown for cool-hand Lewis

Razor Ruddock could not cut it with Britain's Lennox Lewis, who knocked down his opponent three times

Lennox Lewis
v Tony Tucker

Saturday 8th
11.00pm

Lennox Lewis, Britain's heavyweight world champion, tells 'Cable Guide' about his first defence of the WBC title against Tony Tucker. He is confident but there are risks for him . . .

BOBBOY MOORE'S death was announced shortly before Lennox Lewis was to face a press conference in a Leeds hotel.

The assembled reporters were taken aback when Britain's world heavyweight champion asked them to hold the questions and first remember England's finest captain. A minute's silence followed.

In or out of the ring, whatever the circumstances, Lewis keeps his sense of proportion.

He may be Britain's first holder of boxing's most glamorous title this century but on an emotive occasion like the passing of a sporting great, Lewis remains level-headed.

'Bobby Moore did a lot for West Ham and I met him once,' says

Lewis the Hammers fan simply.

If you compare Moore's famous unflappability on daunting occasions to Lewis's composure in the ring, the boxer just smiles.

Remember how Lewis flattened Razor Ruddock in the first round of their battle and then stepped back into a corner with a deadpan look belying his staggering success. You would never have guessed that victory was meant to entail a title fight with champion Riddick Bowe and perhaps untold wealth.

'I was in a state of total concentration and relaxed,' Lewis told Cable Guide. 'I put my body in a trance.'

Yet his second-round victory on Halloween night sent a shiver down the spine of Bowe, who held the three heavyweight belts but ducked out of his commitment to meet Lewis. So Lewis gained Bowe's WBC belt by default and suddenly the pressure was on. A champ's first defence is the hardest and the 27-year-old Lewis will not want to be remembered as the Brit who in the ring lost but never won the heavyweight crown.

He squares up to 34-year-old American Tony Tucker in Las Vegas on Saturday 8th (Sky Sports viewers can see this momentous fight live in the early hours of Sunday morning).

While Bowe gets well paid for fighting no-hopers like Michael Dokes, Lewis has an away match with a man who is a tough former champion. Tucker's had 51 wins in 52 fights, his one defeat having been to Mike Tyson.

Lewis, like Bobby Moore, should be applauded for not shirking a challenge.

I think the fight is going to be a chess match,' Lewis says. 'It is going to take a couple of rounds for me to figure him out because he has got a lot of experience.'

'Tyson could not knock him out. But Tucker hasn't faced anyone as good as me and that boxes like me so that is a bonus.

'I have an arsenal of punches that I can throw at any moment. I'm fast-footed and fast-handed.'

Lewis has been anxious to get back to the serious business in the ring and away from the distractions. 'I've had plenty of offers to do panto and movies but that's not my focus right now.

'My focus is going after the other two belts and being undisputed world champion. Plus just being a role model.

'That's enough obligation and responsibility for now. The other things – not pantomime! – I would want to do after the boxing.'

For now Lewis relishes being the first British heavyweight champion since Bob Fitzsimmons in the 1890s.

'The Americans have held that title for such a long time and I feel kind of special that I am the only one to take it out of America.'

The shock-haired promoter Don King has promised Lewis about £6.7 million to perform at Las Vegas's Thomas and Mack Center. But King's involvement is ominous. Tucker is his heavyweight and King's links with the WBC leads some observers to suggest that the fight officials will be disinclined to do Lewis any favours.

Lewis lists the dangers: 'The fact that it is not going to be in Britain; the fact that Don King's looking after the show; the third one is that it will be in the desert; and finally, that Tucker is coming to take what I got.'

Yet Lewis is assured. 'I'll win inside the distance. I don't believe guys can stay in there with me.'

Lewis has always enjoyed competing. 'The first time I boxed as an amateur was against my best friend.

'We were supposed to take it easy but it turned into a war. My mother came and his mother was there and there was blood all over the place.

'When I got out my mother

goes, "Were you mad in there?" Which seemed like a funny question but in a sense she was right. It's a controlled violence. She had seen that I wanted to go out there and win badly.'

That was in Kitchener, Canada, where Lewis's mother Violet had taken him from West Ham, London, to seek a better life in 1977. There were times when Lewis considered dropping the boxing. 'Losing was the hardest thing. It was like the world had come to an end. Playing team sports [basketball and American football] taught me how to accept losing.'

All doubts were dispelled after Lewis won the World Junior Championship in 1983. He beat his present would-be opponent

Riddick Bowe to take gold for Canada at the 1988 Olympics.

He cannot wait for a title unifier with Bowe. 'I expect to meet him again when his manager [Rock Newman] thinks they got enough money ripping off the public and they are looking at retiring.'

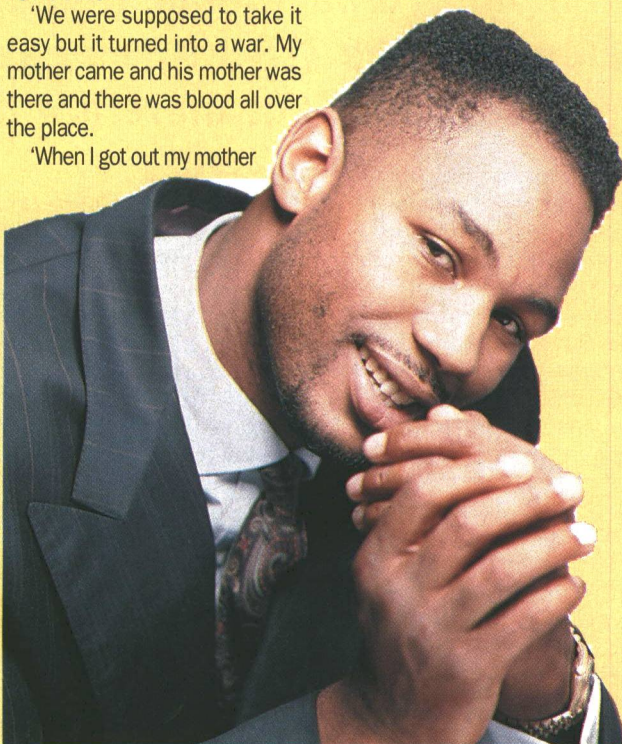

He chose to represent Britain as a pro but some doubted his Britishness. Hence his publicity tour with Sky and the Leeds press conference.

'My focus is to go after the other two belts and be the undisputed World Champion'

Lewis was knocked out by the reception. He was mobbed at schools and shopping centres around the country. The crowds even took Violet, who accompanied her son, to their heart. At one shopping centre where Lewis was appearing they chanted her name until she sheepishly emerged from within a store to answer their good-natured questions.

Lewis has won over the public. Now he must win his spurs where it counts most for champions: in the ring.

If he does, he faces the Battle of Britain with Frank Bruno in September... ■ ROBIN JAROSKI

Greta the dream wife?

Shattered

Saturday 8th
10.00pm

ACCLAIMED German film-maker Wolfgang Petersen made his Hollywood debut with the labyrinthine Hitchcockian thriller Shattered.

The film stars Tom Berenger as Dan Merrick, a handsome and successful property developer who has suffered from amnesia ever since the night of his terrible automobile crash. Although he has a beautiful (but scheming) wife played by Greta Scacchi, a luxurious house and a job he both likes and excels at, Merrick is plagued by strange and inscrutable memory flashes that may hold the key to his past and offer him the identity he feels he lacks.

Petersen had planned to adapt Richard Neely's novel The Plastic Nightmare for the screen back in the 1970s; however, his native country called and Petersen jumped at the offer to make Das Boot, the critical and commercial success that received six Oscar nominations, and it wasn't until the end of the 1980s that he came to Hollywood to assemble his long-cherished project.

How much does Judith (Greta Scacchi) know about her husband's past?

This gripping thriller also stars Joanne Whalley-Kilmer, Bob Hoskins and Corbin Bernsen. ■

ALL HOODS IN THE HOOD?

Boyz N The Hood

Sunday 2nd
8.00pm

OSCAR-NOMINATED African-American director John Singleton's devastating debut Boyz N The Hood is one of the finest examples of the recent wave of New Black Cinema.

The film centres on the difficulties faced by young Black men and women growing up in the urban war zone of South-Central Los Angeles, where violent crime, drug abuse and gang warfare are everyday realities. It tells the story of three boyhood friends growing up in this dangerous neighbourhood, and of a divorced father who attempts to steer his son away from a life of crime.

Many of the film's political concerns, such as police harassment and economic exploitation, have already been voiced through a different medium by one of the film's stars, rapper Ice Cube, who is joined here by Cuba Gooding and Larry Fishburne. ■

SPIKE LEE'S fifth feature film stars Wesley Snipes as Flipper Purify, a young black architect whose affair with his Italian-American secretary Angie (Annabella Sciorra) renders them both outcasts from their families, causing heartaches for them and their loved ones.

Lee describes his films as 'litmus tests' that measure the pulse of public opinion on issues of public concern.

The film also stars Ossie Davis, the veteran actor who delivered the eulogy at Malcolm X's funeral (which he repeated for Lee's recent X biopic).

Nanci's tribute

Country Music Television

Seven days a week, 24 hours a day

FEW Nashville-based artists are as popular in the UK as singer-songwriter Nanci Griffith, who is touring extensively during May and June.

Nanci also appears on CMT Europe in her latest video Speed of the Sound of Loneliness, which features songwriter John Prine and was shot in one of Nashville's oldest graveyards.

Nanci's highly acclaimed album Other Voices, Other Rooms pays homage to writers and artists from previous generations who have influenced her, including Kate Wolf, The Carter Family, Woody Guthrie, The Weavers, Ralph McTell and Townes Van Zandt. Special guests include Emmylou Harris, Bob Dylan, Guy Clark, Chet Atkins, Alison Krauss and Arlo Guthrie.

Nanci will be chatting about the album in CMT's regular soundbites, which were filmed at Nashville's Ryman Auditorium.

Other Nanci Griffith videos showing on CMT include It's a Hard Life, I Don't Want to Talk About Love and Late Night Grande Hotel, which was shot in London by Annie Lennox video director Sophie Muller. ■

Campbell's a law unto himself!

BORN in Carlsbad, New Mexico, Stacy Dean Campbell grew up with the country influences of his mother's family of potash miners but didn't consider performing until his late teens. His debut album, Lonesome Wins Again, is inspired by the wide-open spaces of New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas, and includes his high-energy debut single Rosa Lee and the softer Poor Man's Rose, both featured on CMT Europe.

But music wasn't his only career choice. 'On the same day I was offered a job as Sheriff's Deputy for Oklahoma County Sheriff's Department, I got a call to come to Nashville to record the demos that helped land my record deal,' recalls the darkly handsome 24-year-old.

'I really liked the thought of serving the public, but in many ways music has those same qualities. Through your music you really do become a public servant.' ■

Beavis & Butt-head

Saturdays 8.30pm and
Sundays 10.00pm

BEAVIS & BUTT-HEAD is a new animated series that follows the quirky adventures of two unemployed suburban metalhead misfits.

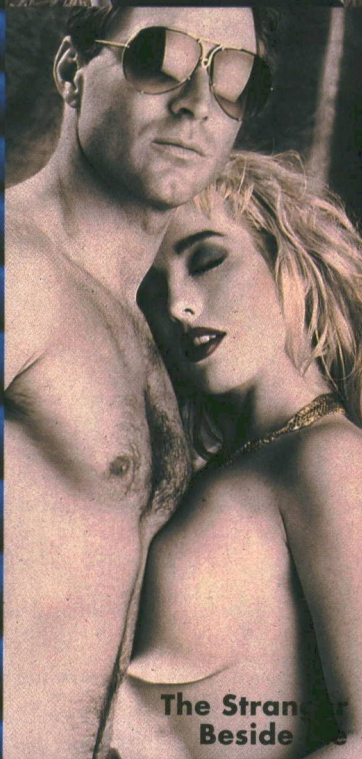

Beavis is blonde and sports a Metallica shirt, while dark-haired Butt-head favours an AC/DC t-shirt. Their favourite activities include going on a rampage of the local shopping mall with a neighbour's credit card, travelling to Mexico to buy fireworks, wreaking havoc at the window of a local drive-through burger bar and attending events such as the 'All-star Monster Tractor Trashathon'. ■

CHAIN REACTION!

Warner Brothers composed some of the great social documents of 1930s cinema. Cable Guide looks back in anger . . .

I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang

Sunday 9th
8.00pm

WARNER Brothers Pictures was started by four brothers in 1923, but by the 1930s had risen to pre-eminence by gambling on talking pictures with The Jazz Singer.

The man responsible for Warner's 1930s look was Darryl F Zanuck, right-hand man to studio head Jack Warner. Eschewing the gloss of MGM and the sophistication of Paramount, Zanuck concentrated on realism, paying special attention to society's losers. Warner's became known as the Working Man's Studio, shooting its films in black and white to reflect the depression.

Leading the way was a cycle of gangster movies like Petrified Forest (Humphrey Bogart), The Public Enemy (Jimmy Cagney) and Little Caesar (Edward G Robinson). Second only to the crime dramas was a series of prison dramas like 20,000 Years in Sing Sing, Each Dawn I Die and I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang, which starred Paul Muni.

Muni had come to the US from Europe at the Age of seven and made his name in the Yiddish Art Theater. By 1931 he was appearing in movies and after scoring a triumph in Scarface he signed to Warners and became the studio's most distinguished thespian. An extremely conscientious actor, he took meticulous care with the makeup required for authenticity in his portrayals.

One of the most eloquent and far-reaching of all social protest films, I Am a Fugitive from a Chain Gang had Muni as James Allen, an out-of-work war veteran who is framed in a lunch wagon holdup and finds himself serving a prison sentence for a crime he did not commit.

Based on Robert E Burns's account of his own experiences in a chain-gang, the film is an explosive condemnation of the sadism and brutality that subjected convicts to indiscriminate beatings and incarceration in sweat boxes.

Muni's magnificent performance in Chain Gang earned him an Oscar nomination. ■

The Bill Cosby Show

SLOT: Saturdays at 6.30pm on Bravo

STARRING: Bill Cosby as Chet Kincaid

SCREENED: September 1969 to August 1971

STORYLINE: Comic Bill Cosby, who had scored his first TV success in I Spy, played a hip high school physical education teacher and coach.

Set in a lower-class Los Angeles neighbourhood, the series looks at Chet's relationships with family, students and fellow teachers, giving free reign to Cosby's gentle sense of humour and philosophy.

His family life with mother Rose, brother Brian and sister-in-law Verna made up as much of the programme as his professional life with principal Mr Langford, guidance counsellor Mrs Peterson and lots of kids! ■

PETER SELLERS

Born: 8 September 1925 in Southsea, England.

Once described as 'an outstanding mimic with little else to offer', Peter Sellers was on stage from childhood as part of his parents' comedy act.

After winning a talent contest at 13 he entered the RAF at 17 and saw duty as a camp entertainer.

He found fame on BBC Radio's long-running The Goon Show and entered British films in the early 1950s, attaining worldwide popularity by the end of the decade in films like The Lady Killers, Carlton-Browne of the FO, The Mouse That Roared and I'm All Right Jack.

In the 1960s he became a star of international calibre, working in Hollywood and on the continent as well as in London. His triumphs included Dr Strangelove, the Pink Panther series, What's New Pussycat?, There's a Girl in my Soup, The Prisoner of Zenda and Being There, for which he received an Oscar nomination.

He was married four times to Anne Howe (1951), Britt Ekland (1964), Miranda Quarry (1970) and Lynne Frederick (1977).

The fact that he did not win the Oscar for Being There sent him into rages for days, and may have contributed to his death of a heart attack in May 1980. ■

WORLD HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION

Lennox Lewis vs Tony Tucker
WBC World Heavyweight Crown Defence
LIVE and EXCLUSIVE
ONLY ON SKY SPORTS on 8th May

ACTION, DRAMA, COMEDY, ROMANCE -
IT'S ALL ON SKY MOVIES PLUS IN MAY.

Premieres not to be missed this month include:

Hot Shots - an Airplane!-style spoof starring Charlie Sheen as Topper Harley, the Tom Cruise-style maverick fighter pilot. The film is basically a send up of Top Gun, but is also full of satirical gags based on films such as Rocky, Gone With The Wind, Dances With Wolves and Superman . . . to name but a few!

Boyz 'N the Hood - a powerful drama which trails the lives of three black youths, living in the urban war zone of South-Central Los Angeles, where violent crime, drug abuse and gang warfare are everyday realities. The film is one of the finest examples of New Black Cinema and was recently in the Oscar nominations. One of the film's stars is rapper, Ice Cube, whose role was written specifically for him by African-American director, John Singleton.

Shattered - Tom Berenger heads the cast in the debut of this psychological thriller. Following a near-fatal car accident, successful property developer Dan Merrick is faced with starting his life from scratch, suffering from amnesia.

SKY MOVIES GOLD screens two of Hollywood's favourite cult comedies this May. National Lampoon's Animal House is a bizarre portrayal of American college life in the 60's, starring John Belushi and Tim Matheson as the leaders of the scruffy, carefree Delta fraternity. The Blues Brothers stars Belushi again, teamed up with Dan Aykroyd as Jake and Elwood Blues, brothers who live for black music and who have no respect for the law.

In Airplane II, the cast of the original movie return for more of the same - a round of verbal and visual gags this time set on board an out of control space shuttle.

THE MOVIE CHANNEL LINE-UP FOR MAY includes a host of top movie premieres that'll keep you glued to your screens!

Jungle Fever is Spike Lee's fifth film. A touching drama in which he explores the problems of a relationship between an Afro-American from Harlem and an Italian-American from Bensonhurst, the film stars Wesley Snipes as Flipper Purify, who falls in love with his secretary, Angie (Anabella Sciorra).

Point Break - Patrick Swayze and Keanu Reeves star in this fast-paced action-adventure. Reeves plays Johnny Utah, an FBI agent investigating a string of violent gang robberies, committed by a gang called "The Ex-Presidents". Going undercover amidst the SoCal surfing community, Utah falls under the influence of prime suspect Bodhi (Swayze), a mystical character whose charisma sways the group. The movie incorporates some of the most exhilarating action scenes ever before seen on film.

Doc Hollywood - this delightful comedy stars Michael J Fox as a New York medic, stuck in a small country town, when his car breaks down en route to his exciting new job in Beverly Hills.

SKY MOVIES GOLD is showing three classic thrillers from the 1940's and 1950's during May.

The Big Heat stars Glenn Ford as an honest cop determined to bust a citywide ring of crime and corruption. The film contains what was perceived as a highly controversial scene in 1953, when a young Lee Marvin throws scalding hot coffee in the face of Gloria Grahame.

The 1943 Alfred Hitchcock thriller, Shadow of a Doubt makes its debut this month, with Joseph Cotten delivering a memorably sinister performance as the dubious Uncle Charlie, suspected by his niece as the elusive "Merry Widow" murderer.

The Mickey Spillane novel, Kiss Me Deadly, adapted for the screen in 1955, stars Ralph Meeker as detective Mike Hammer and sees him plunged into a deadly situation after he picks up a mysterious woman on a highway.

YET ANOTHER UNBEATABLE LINE-UP OF SPORTING ACTION ON SKY SPORTS THROUGHOUT MAY!

There's Lennox Lewis' first WBC World Heavyweight Crown Defence, four football Cup Finals from Wembley and three brand new sports added to the already packed schedule.

Nigel Mansell makes his debut in the most famous motorsport event in the World this May - the Indy 500. SKY SPORTS has live and exclusive coverage of this gruelling race, where cars reach speeds of up to 240 mph over the 200 laps of a banked oval circuit.

In a Ringside Special, live from the Thomas A Mack Centre in Las Vegas, SKY SPORTS will broadcast Lennox Lewis vs Tony Tucker, a fight that promises to be the toughest test of Lewis' ability to date. Live coverage will commence on Saturday 8th May headed by the undercard fight, when Mexican hero, Julio Cesar Chavez, will defend his WBC Super-Lightweight title against Terence Ali.

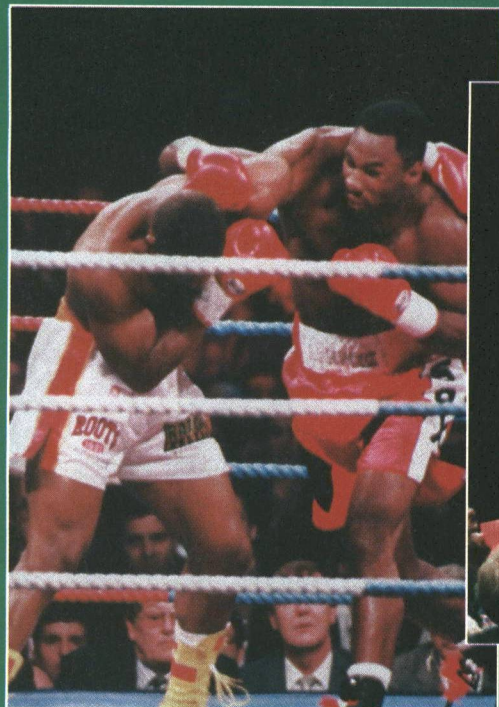

Premier League football action includes Aston Villa vs Oldham Athletic and Manchester United against Blackburn Rovers. SKY SPORTS will also show four Cup Finals from Wembley. The first, the FA Vase, previously known as the FA Amateur Cup, as it features the lower levels of non-league football, is on Saturday 8th May, while on 9th May the Vauxhall FA Trophy will be shown on Super Sunday. Delayed coverage of the FA Cup Final between Sheffield Wednesday and Arsenal is on Saturday 15th May and the Autoglass Trophy can be seen on Saturday 22nd May during Sports Saturday, again from Wembley Stadium.

New sports to look out for this month - the 36th Milk Race, the first major international cycling event to be shown on SKY SPORTS, begins in Royal Tunbridge Wells on Sunday 30th May. Gaelic Football makes its debut on Wednesday 19th May in a ten-week series leading to the All-Ireland Final. Horse-Racing joins the SKY SPORTS evening line-up in a series of seven-race meetings twice weekly starting on Thursday 20th May.

THIS MAY SKY ONE BEGINS SCREENING one of the most exciting new series this year, The Young Indiana Jones Chronicles.

Based on the feature film character, originally portrayed by Harrison Ford, the series follows the swash-buckling hero aged ten, sixteen and ninety three. Directed by George Lucas, the series was shot in eleven countries to add authenticity. The episodes are set in the early 1900's and finds Indy in a host of situations from working as a spy for the French intelligence service to being captured by the Germans during the Battle of the Somme.

Based on Judith Krantz' best-selling novel of the same name, Princess Daisy is the saga of the beautiful and spirited daughter of a Russian prince and an American movie star. This four-hour mini-series features an all-star cast, with Merete Van Kamp playing the title role.

Fatal Vision is based on the best-selling non-fiction book by Joe McGinnis about the sensational murder case involving Dr Jeffrey MacDonald, the former Green Beret captain accused of slaying his wife and daughters.

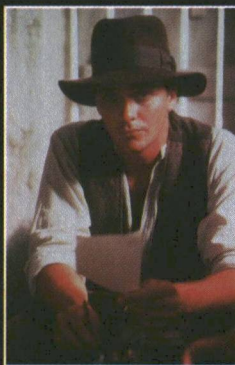

Joan Collins stars as a Russian-born chanteuse who becomes a spy for the allies on the eve of World War II and finds romance, danger and intrigue in the four-hour mini-series Monte Carlo.

The Far Country follows the life of a young Czech on the run from the Nazis and fellow countrymen, attempting to emigrate to Australia. The mini-series stars Michael York as Carl Zlinter with Sigrid Thornton as his girlfriend Jennifer Morton.

A new game show joins SKY ONE in May - Card Sharks. Simple and fun, the show not only involves the contestants and the studio audience, but the viewers at home as well.

CALLING ALL FILM BUFFS!

If you're a movie addict, then what could be a more perfect companion to Sky's three movie channels than the Variety Movie Guide. It contains over 6,000 entries, selected from the 50,000-plus reviews published by Variety over 85 years from January 1907 to June 1992. Details of films cover year of release, running time, country of origin, cast lists, production team lists - basically anything you could ever want to know about a film! We have 10 copies to give away. For a chance to win a copy, just answer the question below.

Q. When is the British Television Premiere of "Doc Hollywood" and on which Sky channel will it be shown?

All correct entries will be entered into a draw and then the ten people whose names are chosen at random by Sky will win a copy of the Variety Movie Guide.

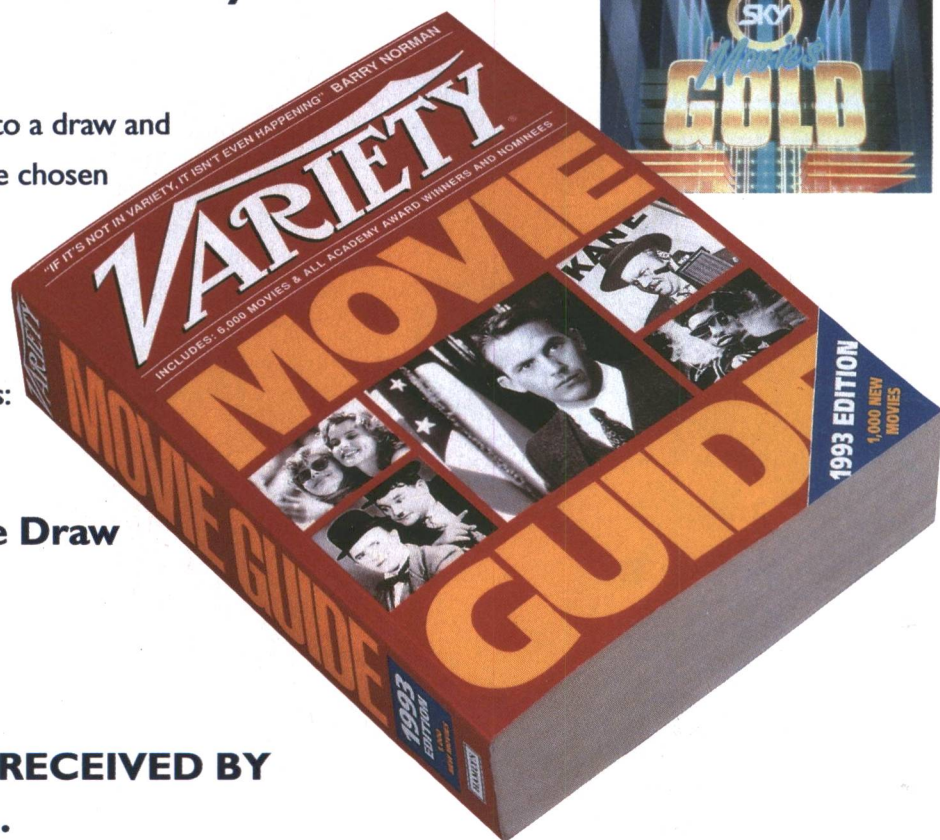

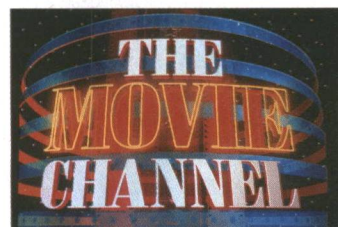

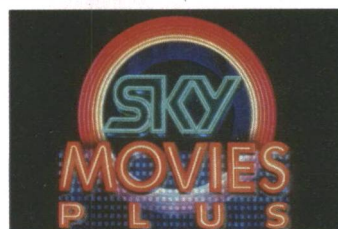

Entries should be on a postcard, stating clearly your name and address:

Send your entries to:

Variety Movie Guide Prize Draw

FILMS

National Lampoon's Animal House
Sky Movies Gold 8.00pm
The late lamented John Belushi was never quite so outrageous again after this monster mash of a movie which puts two youthful innocents including Tom (Amadeus) Hulce into an American college campus that makes St Trinian's look like kindergarten. The jokes and slapstick come thick and fast and you'll never go to a toga party again without memories of this movie.

FILMS

Boyz N The Hood
Sky Movies Plus
8.00pm
A first showing of this powerful tale of life in South Central Los Angeles. The partially autobiographical tale won debut director John Singleton an Oscar nomination and portrayed elements of the Rodney King riot mentality before it actually happened. Don't watch it if you just want to relax ready for work on Monday morning.

GENERAL

The Love Boat
Sky One 2.00pm
If only all life were like this - soft sea breezes, beautifully tanned men and women whose only care was to fall in love and get a seat at the captain's table. This glamorous romantic series returns for an extended run - at least as long as it takes to sail off into the sunset.

SPORT

Motorcycling, Spanish Grand Prix
Eurosport 12 noon
The fans of two wheel sport welcome the chance to tune in to Jerez de la Frontera for the action which these days is dominated by the American riders. Whatever happened to Barry Sheene?

FILMS

A Night at the Opera Bravo 5.25pm
Can this anarchic masterpiece really be nearly 60 years old? For comedy fans, the Marx Brothers' films are unmissable and the five minutes of chaos in the stateroom could count as the funniest in movie history as Groucho, Chico and Harpo invade the world of opera and high society with the kind of results that leave your head spinning and your sides splitting. It's the second half of a Marx Bros double - which starts at 4.05pm.

GENERAL

Bonanza Super Channel 5.30pm
Dum, diddle dum, diddle diddle dum, Bo-nan-ZA! Yes, we can all sing along once more to the famous strains of the strenuous Ben, Hoss and Little Joe theme tune in no less than 21 classic episodes every weekday this month. There were 310 episodes of the Cartwright's life on the Ponderosa ranch, so don't worry if you miss a couple - there's plenty more, pardners.

SPORT

Monday Night Football
Sky Sports 7.00pm
Any chance to see Ryan Giggs should not be passed up lightly. Here he and his Manchester United buddies take on Kenny Dalglish's nosediving Blackburn Rovers. Surely after 26 years of trying this will be a celebration for the Reds and the long-awaited championship?

Monday continues overleaf...

FILMS

Ben Hur
Bravo 8.00pm
Charlton Heston with his pectorals a-poppin' stars in one of the greatest stories ever told on cinema. Eleven Oscars was just one mark of the power of this epic which features the most famous horse chariot race of all time (maybe the only one?). Stephen Boyd is the baddie to boo at and Jack Hawkins provides the real acting skills. More than 30 years old, but better than anything youngsters can make these days, hey granddad?

GENERAL

The Kenny Everett Television Show
UK Gold 11.00pm
Our cuddly Ken with the impossible impersonations of outrageous Sid Snot and friends is still good for a chuckle every now and again as we re-live all his jokes which were already centuries old. What gluttons for punishment we are.

SPORT

Tennis German Open
Sky Sports 10.30am
Second day of the German Open from Hamburg where they know their tennis and have lots of top players to prove it.

FILMS

Angels With Dirty Faces
Sky Movies Gold
8.00pm
This is not James Cagney's 'You dirty rat' film, but it is one of his most famous. The man who put the angst into gangster turns in a bravura performance opposite the great Pat O'Brien who was one of the top Hollywood character actors of the pre-War period. The two grow up, grow apart and set up the classic gangster/priest conundrum. Watch for Humphrey Bogart as well.

GENERAL

Breaking the Habit
The Learning
Channel 12 noon
We all go down the pub every now and again, but who is the social drinker and who is the drunk-in-waiting? Heart-rendering testimonials from ex-alcoholics tell us how easy it is to go one over the eight again and again. This is the first in a four part series examining the effects of alcohol on the supposedly-social drinker.

FILMS

Return to Salem's Lot
The Movie Channel 10.00pm
It's white knuckle time again as another Stephen King novel (just how many did this guy write?) gets the celluloid scare treatment. The exercise is to frighten your pants off as quickly and as often as possible - so for this one, wear braces and at least three sets of undies. Michael Moriarty gets vampired when he comes to live in one of those small American towns where butter wouldn't melt. Oh yeh?

GENERAL

Card Sharks
Sky One 10.00am
A new daytime game show which began earlier this week and involves all you at home, too! It's got giant playing cards, two lucky couples and survey results to guess. Any similarity to every other game show ends here, so you must judge if it's a good game, good game yourself. Alright, my loves?

SPORT

The Boot Room
Sky Sports 10.00pm
One of the channel's footballing innovations this season as Andy Gray does more with a Subbutteo pitch, a telestrator and a blackboard than you ever thought possible. For the real fans every Thursday. Let's see you tell us who's gonna win BEFORE the game though, Andy!

Thursday continues overleaf...

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

Laurel and Hardy's Laughing 20s Bravo 8.00pm
OK, so not strictly ONE film, but a series of Stanley and Ollie clips which was compiled in 1965 and highlights the best of their silent era. You either love 'em or hate 'em, but no one ever took a pie in the face better than Hardy. Now no trying this at home, please.

GENERAL

"V"
Sky One 8.00pm
I never understood why present-day Los Angeles residents couldn't spot these carnivorous reptiles doing their human being impersonations. They enslave the earth's population for food and make us all look stupid. Tune in this time every week and see if you agree with me or not.

SPORT

So You Want to Play Golf with Peter Alliss
The Learning Channel 1.00pm
Peter Alliss has charmed golf fans for years with his Woganesque wit from the course and now he puts us all straight down the middle by unbunkering the everyday golfer with tips from tee to green.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

Shattered Sky Movies Plus 10.00pm
Big Tom Berenger does an amnesia act as a property developer who survives an automobile crash. It's the memory flashes which then put him into a labyrinth of thrills and suspense. Very Hitchcockian, said the reviewers when it was first released and they were right.

GENERAL

Bewitched Sky One 2.00pm
You've probably seen them all before, but you can't help but watch them all again. Elizabeth Montgomery is so daisy and husband Dick York is so dumb in this witch-turned-wife comedy series that it will never go far from our screens. As comfortable as a well-worn cardigan - and it never wears out!

SPORT

Boxing Lennox Lewis vs Tony Tucker
The WBC champ Lennox fights for pride and prize money that some small African countries can only dream about. Our hero should walk all over Tucker, but it's a funny old game. Or is that football?

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

The Blues Brothers
Sky Movies Gold
8.00pm
Get those shades out and that old black, shiny suit - it's time to party as Jake and Elwood Blues (alias John Belushi and Dan Ackroyd) take us on a musical journey which includes cameo roles from the likes of Ray Charles, James Brown and Aretha Franklin. The Brothers try to raise money for an orphanage, but who cares about the plot when the visual jokes and the songs are so fabulous.

GENERAL

Sorry!
UK Gold 7.00pm
I warmed to this comedy series after a couple of false starts as little Ron plays hapless Timothy Lumsden struggling with being a bachelor, having a gruesome mother, no girlfriend, a boring job, plus he wears stupid clothes and silly specs. Sounds more like a tragedy than a comedy when you think about it!

SPORT

Premier League Football
Sky Sports 1.00pm
The day when the possible triplecast of Manchester United, Aston Villa and Norwich games all taking place could take place if all three are still in with a chance of the title. Whatever happens, one of the three will be featured in the normal time slot.

Sunday continues overleaf...

FILMS

Altered States
Sky Movies Gold
10.00pm
Every now and again, Ken Russell directs a movie that doesn't just shock you - it also pushes out the envelope of movie history. This one got William Hurt started on the stardom ladder, so we all can thank Uncle Ken for that as Bill is the scientist who tinkers with a sensory deprivation machine.

GENERAL

Whale Watch
The Discovery Channel 9.00pm
In 1991, four million people from 30 countries spent $317 million watching whales. You can do it for a week for the price of your monthly cable fee. Good value, eh? This seven-day series marks the International Whaling Commission's meeting in Japan to discuss the future of whaling.

FILMS

Outland
 Sky Movies Gold
 8.00pm
Everybody loves Sean Connery. Everybody except all the people in this Jupiter mining community who don't want him around nosing into some strange murders. A kind of High Noon in space, this is one of Sean's best non-Bond performances and the Jupiter stuff looks real enough for you to get excited - even about the famous exploding head scene!

GENERAL

Murphy Brown
 Sky One 8.00pm
Real-life and television drama have merged in this show, which stars Candice Bergen as a journalist and single parent. Former Vice President Dan Quayle condemned Murphy as not being the best role model for young women when what America needed was more nuclear families. Viewers then cheered as Murphy put Quayle in his place in a later episode. A big hit in the US.

SPORT

Heavyweight Boxing
 Eurosport 9.00pm
Herbie Hide is promoter Barry Hearn's ticket into the Lennox Lewis money category of big time boxing. Herbie looks like a cruiserweight, but carries heavyweight expectations. Here he takes on another hand-picked American opponent. Two rounds maximum.

FILMS

Cabaret
Bravo 8.00pm
Is it the songs? Is it Liza Minelli's legs? Or is it the cruel story of Berlin in the 1930s? Maybe it's all those things which makes this Christopher Isherwood-adapted novel into a masterpiece. Willkommen, bienvenu and welcome to the Kit Kat Club and the Nazis as seen through the painted eyes of showbiz. Eight Oscars and worth every one.

GENERAL

Richard Diamond Super Channel 6.30pm
If you thought David Janssen was nothing but The Fugitive then catch him as this suave, sophisticated private eye each Wednesday night. This week's episode is called Marked For Murder - you can guess the plot from there, I've no doubt.

SPORT

Grand Prix Magazine Eurosport 9.00pm
A look back at the weekend's Spanish Grand Prix from Barcelona with special analysis and film footage. Let's hope we'll be watching another Damon Hill triumph!

FILMS

The Package
Sky Movies Plus
8.00pm
Gene Hackman reading the telephone book would draw in crowds. Luckily in this spy thriller, good ol' Gene gets a chance to do a little bit more as he plays an army sergeant assigned to escort a prisoner back from Germany. It's not Gene's fault that things don't go smoothly, but then we wouldn't have a 108-minute film if they all got home safely now would we?

GENERAL

Carrott's Lib
UK Gold 10.30pm
Okay, okay, I know that it gets boring. Every month Jasper gets chosen, but it really is funny stuff and if you haven't tried it yet then do so tonight. Don't you want to have a good laugh - after all it IS Thursday.

SPORT

Golf US PGA Seniors
Sky Sports 8.00pm
Coverage of the Liberty Mutual Tournament where the fat bellies get the spotlight instead of the flat bellies. At least that's how Lee Trevino tells it.

Point Break
The Movie Channel
10.00pm
Falling out of an airplane even WITH a parachute is scary. Surfing at the same time? Hey, man, let's catch that wave and find ourselves a tube. Patrick Swayze tries it all in this 1991 film also starring Keanu Reeves. There's been some bank raids goin' on down Utah way and Keanu, the renegade FBI man knows how to investigate 'em - he teams up with super-surfer and part-time fruitcake Swayze who is also among the suspects.

GENERAL

MTV's European Video Song Contest
MTV 7.00am, 1.00pm and 8.00pm
A version of the Eurovision Song Contest, but thankfully without "null pwan" Norway and definitely minus Terry Wogan's inanities. Juries from all over Europe will decide the winner and you can check MTV text on how to be a part of the day. It might be too late to enter your own video, though.

SPORT

Boxing WBO Supermiddleweight Championship
Eurosport 9.00pm
Another month and another boring Chris Eubank 10-round points victory. You can almost write the script now as the man from Brighton poses his way to another big pay check against a rank outsider. A Eubank-Benn fight is our only hope!

Saturday continues overleaf...

FILMS

Arsenic and Old Lace
Bravo 8.00pm
A starry-eyed Cary Grant rushes around covering up for his two murdering mad-aunts in a Frank Capra comedy which is in the don't-make-them-like-they-used-to category in a big way. If this film doesn't put you off drinking homemade wine then nothing will, so be grateful for that if nothing else.

GENERAL

Nature By Profession
The Discovery Channel 9.00pm
The behaviour of animals in the wild has been the subject of so many famous moments in television wildlife documentaries. This programme examines things like what makes a bear angry. Bad TV critics, perhaps?

SPORT

Gaelic Football
Sky Sports 6.00pm
Another attempt to make sense of this Irish-only sport which is 15-a-side and dates back to 1712. It's weekly throughout the season.

FILMS

Mister Frost
The Movie Channel
11.30pm
One of three Last Play movies tonight, but probably the one you most likely meant to watch and never did. Jeff Goldblum is more than just a tall guy in this, he is a sinister devil incarnate character who gives Alan Bates the heebie jeebies. It's on late at night so the bizarre qualities of the movie can transfer themselves into your dreams - you have been warned.

GENERAL

Elite Fighting Forces
The Discovery
Channel 8.00pm
If I said to you 'Who Dares Wins'. You'd either say the SAS or Delboy Trotter. Well, this series looks at the military men without names, the trained killers who are our shock troops in time of war. US Navy Seals and French Foreign Legion are also under investigation in this powerful behind-the-scenes set of programmes.

SPORT

Horse Racing
Sky Sports 7.00pm
Now here's an interesting horse racing double bill live from both Uttoxeter, England, and Perth, Western Australia. Picking winners must be easier than explaining the link between these two.

Thursday continues overleaf...

FILMS

Exorcist 2: The Heretic
Sky Movies Gold 10.00pm
This film didn't have quite the shock value of the first film in the series and was actually laughed out of the movie theatre during previews. Director John Boorman did some hasty re-editing and here is the result. Linda Blair, Richard Burton and Louise Fletcher try to keep straight faces four years after the original devil was exorcised - or was it?

FILMS

Jungle Fever
The Movie Channel
10.00pm
Spike Lee is da man, man! Say yeh! And this is his fifth film which means he is also a man with Hollywood longevity. Wesley Snipes is the black lover of his Italian secretary (Annabella Sciorra). Don't expect too many laughs as the pair are ostracised in this examination of black-white love affairs.

GENERAL

Bergerac
UK Gold 8.00pm
It's harmless stuff as Jersey's most famous man (let alone policeman) unravels another island mystery. Surprising that he still has time in between all those advert voice-overs and tourist board special appearances.

SPORT

Cycling Classic of the Alps
Eurosport 1.00pm
For the mountain specialists, this quick two-hour trip around the Alps comes to you live.

Saturday continues overleaf...

FILMS

Ice Castles
Sky Movies Plus
4.00pm
If it's schmaltz you want then look no further than Robby Benson and Lynn-Holly Johnson (no, not THAT Holly Johnson) playing a young couple falling in love, finding fame and fortune, going blind - and it's all on skates. No wonder Torville and Dean had to go some to get the ice dancing audience's attention if this movie set the dramatic standards.

GENERAL

Unplugged with Mary J Blige
MTV 7.00am
Now you don't have to be a stadium-filling superstar to get the unplugged call and Mary is the proof of this particular pudding. She can do the R&B, hip-hop and jazzy vocals along with the best of them.

SPORT

Tennis French Open
Eurosport 10.00
The start of two weeks of live action every day from the famous Roland Garros Stadium in Paris as the second leg of tennis's Grand Slam is up for grabs.

FILMS

Whatever Happened To Baby Jane?
Sky Movies Plus 8.00pm
Joan Crawford and Bette Davis did it better, but Vanessa and Lynn Redgrave give them a good tussle in this 1991 version of the 1962 black comedy of the Hudson sisters whose movie careers have long gone. No chance of real-life research for the Redgrave girls in this one, I suppose?

GENERAL

L.A. Law
Sky One 9.00pm
It's tough to tune into a series like this as a one-off, but the acting is good enough and the action is believable enough to let you slip in without a bump. If you like court room dramas then you should have been watching this ages ago.

SPORT

Football European Champions Cup Final
Eurosport 10.00pm
There used to be a time when more than one team had a chance to win this trophy. Nowadays it feels like AC Milan could play their reserve team and still not meet anyone tougher.

FILMS

Misery
The Movie Channel
8.00pm
There is one scene in this movie which makes you grimace in pain forever at the very thought of it. Kathy Bates as the besotted star lover and James Caan as the object of her love play out a claustrophobic drama which just goes through the roof on the pain-o-meter.

GENERAL

Connery
The Discovery Channel 11.00pm
Bond, James Bond - nobody said it better than our Sean and here is a documentary which traces his career from his first "role" as an Edinburgh milkman to his latest incarnation as the man Hollywood loves to love. And he could probably buy enough milk to supply the whole of Edinburgh until the millennium by now.

SPORT

Badminton World Team Championship
Sky Sports 7.00pm and 11.00pm
Not often that the shuttlecocks take the top slot, but this is live from Birmingham and although the oriental countries dominate, our guys and gals can put up a good show if forced into a corner.

Below are general programme details - please watch your screens for changes.

FILMS

Emmanuelle
Sky Movies Plus
11.55pm
It all looks a little tame nearly 20 years down the road, but Sylvia Kristel's classily erotic wife of a French diplomat is still pretty on the eye. Super Sylvia gets introduced to some sophisticated sexual pleasures and the Emmanuelle series is on its way. It raised quite a stir in 1974 and spawned a whole series of movies and spoofs and the like.

GENERAL

Guns N' Roses Weekend
MTV 9.30am, 1.00pm and 11.30pm
Step forward Mr Axl Rose and all the other little blossoms that make up one of the wildest rock 'n' roll bands of the last few years. Histories, concerts and famous last words are all here for the megafan.

SPORT

Tennis French Open
Eurosport 10.00am and 5.00pm
The first week of the tournament is coming to a close and the finals are a week away. It should start to get interesting from about now.

FILMS

Doc Hollywood
The Movie Channel
8.00pm
Michael J Fox at his cutest plays an amiable doctor from the big city who comes a cropper in the deep south. But returning to the life in the fast lane isn't quite as straightforward as buying a return plane ticket. There's the love interest from Julie Warner and all the sophisticate-turned-turtle jokes to get through.

GENERAL

Edgar Lustgarten
Bravo 11.30pm
Edgar Lustgarten was the journalist who in the 1950s discovered that he could handsomely boost his income by churning out crime sagas for 'B' productions like this. Very British, very atmospheric.

SPORT

Indy 500
Sky Sports 4.00pm
It's the sport that Nigel Mansell has made famous. Graham Hill won this classic 500-mile race on his first visit and our Nigel is sticking his chin out to do the same. There's bound to be heaps of live drama if Mansell's F1 days are anything to go by.

Gary Norman presents Sky Sport's boxing programme 'Ringside' and will be hosting Lennox Lewis's WBC defence on May 8th

What would you change about your personal appearance?

It would be nice to be six feet tall instead of 5'8" ... and they've not perfected head transplants yet, so I'll leave it at that.

With whom do you most like being?

Because of the hustle and bustle of the TV business, I actually like being on my own. Preferably in the sun, on a beach with a cocktail in my hand ...

When have you been most happy?

See above, and whenever I shoot a par round of golf (whenever that will be).

When have you been least happy?

When I've been happy in a personal relationship and the other person hasn't and it's all gone wrong. I hate conflict.

Under what circumstances would you be dishonest?

If I had to lie to save my life, that of my family or any close friends.

What is your least appealing characteristic?

Physically, I think, I've got a large proboscis ... (I hope that confuses you). Other than that I tend not to suffer fools too gladly.

What characteristic in others annoys you the most?

People who rant on about how good they are. Unfortunately people like that fail to realise that we all need each other in one way or another.

Who do you most admire?

Any sportsman/woman at the top of their sport. Having been a mediocre athlete I know the dedication it took to get even that far.

From left: Lennox Lewis, Gary Norman and Gary Mason

Who do you least admire?

Anyone that cheats their way to the top, ie athletes on drugs. If you can't compete on equal terms, try something else.

What is your favourite film and/or TV programme?

As a horror buff I loved The Shining ... but One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest moved me most of all. On TV ... I'm a big Harry Enfield fan.

What is your least favourite film and/or TV programme?

Anyone who understood the film The Naked Lunch had one over on me and, on TV, any Aussie soap.

Who is your favourite actor/performer?

Jack Nicholson and Robert De Niro screen-wise. Musically anything that gets me buzzing!

Who is your least favourite actor/performer?

I could mention Aussie soaps but I won't. On screen - Madonna.

I can think of a lot better things she could do than act.

What is your favourite record/piece of music?

I tend to go with the flow. Currently I'm into the London club sounds. I always listen to the radio, particularly Kiss, but I'm not opposed to the odd piece of classical music if I'm in the mood.

What is your least favourite record/piece of music?

Anything by ABBA and all those bland 70s/80s holiday songs. You know, the Birdie Song, that kind of thing.

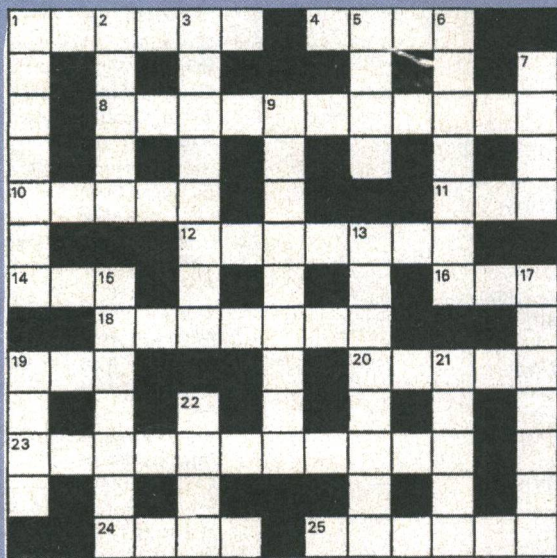

Where do you see yourself in five years' time, best/worst scenario?

Hopefully Sky Sports will be the best sports network available with as much premier action as possible. I want to assist in achieving that and be part of it. At worst: well, I can't imagine a worst. I'm an achiever and hopefully anything I'm involved in will work.

FREE! Barn Owl thimble for joining now.

The Thimble Collectors Club

Now, at modest cost, you can build your own collection of choice collector's thimbles.

Wedgwood . . . Limoges . . . Hutschenreuther . . . Royal Doulton . . . Haviland . . . these and others of the world's greatest porcelain houses will be represented in your collection.

The finest thimbles are works of art in miniature. Charming and colourful, they add warmth and appeal to a room. They are family treasures to be passed to daughter and granddaughter. It's no wonder millions of people around the world collect thimbles.

A Lovely Thimble Sent To You Each Month

Now, through membership in the Thimble Collectors Club you build a collection of the creme de la creme of porcelain and china thimbles; a collection which would be practically impossible to assemble on your own.

Each month, you will receive a beautiful thimble. Our representatives are in contact with porcelain houses all round the world. They select only the very best thimbles.

"Golden Bouquet" from Castel Limoges of France. A beautiful creation in cobalt blue and a 22 carat gold flower decoration. £5.95.

"Little Owl" from Oakley of England. An exclusive painting by famed artist Maurice Pledger decorates this exquisite bone china. £5.45.

"Imari" from Shibata of Japan. Classical Oriental design in gold and bold colours. £6.95.

"Balloon Seller" from Royal Doulton of England. Their most famous figurine portrayed on a fine bone china thimble. £5.95.

Indeed, most of the monthly selections will have been created exclusively for the Club's members.

The thimbles in your collection will bear the names and identifying marks of the houses that created them. They will reflect the different artistic visions of the various nations and porcelain makers. Thus, the individual thimbles will have infinite variety... yet together they will form a beautifully harmonious collection.

A card will accompany each thimble describing the motif on it and the porcelain house which made it.

"Bluebell", the Flower of the Year thimble from Spode. Full colour flowers round the side and a real gold flower decorates the top. £6.75.

No Risk or Obligation

If you are not delighted with any month's thimble selection, you may simply return it within ten days for full refund. And you may cancel your membership at any time.

Modest Cost

One of the nice things about collecting thimbles is that besides being beautiful, they don't cost a lot. The Club's regular monthly selections typically cost about £7.

A shimmering multi-faceted lead crystal jewel tops "Cherry Blossoms" from Sutherland of England. £6.45.

"Bavarian Castle" from Hutschenreuther of West Germany. An enchanting scene. £5.95.

Some letters from our members...

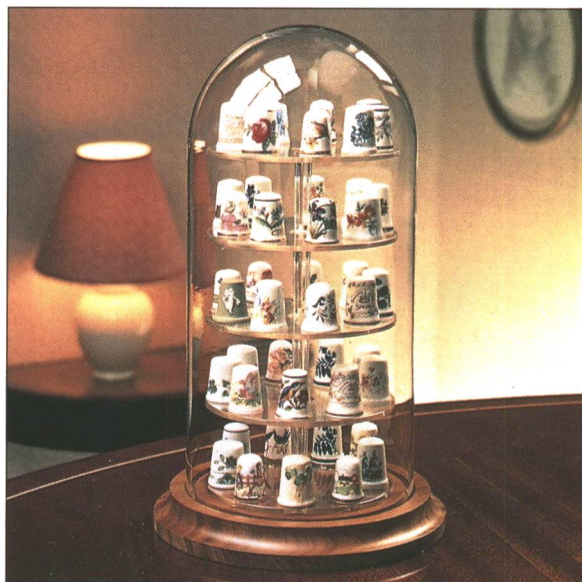

"By joining the Club I have been able to buy thimbles never seen in shops." (Mrs J. Mundy, Bristol.)

"My family and friends have commented on all the beautiful thimbles displayed in my glass dome." (Miss M. Belding, Slough.)

"The excitement of my two daughters when the easily recognised package drops through the letter box is something to look forward to." (Mrs S. Gloak, Milton Keynes.)

"Now that I have several thimbles, I am truly delighted. Each one is so tastefully and delicately made with beautiful colouring - true works of art." (Angela Leach, Royston.)

"I have found your service prompt and the selection excellent." (Mrs A. White, Whitley.)

A lovely domed display stand can be an attractive addition to the decor of your home. It and other unusually fine display pieces are offered by the Club to members.

A dazzling tribute to

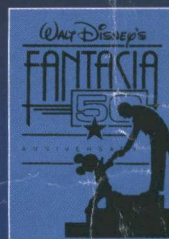

WALT DISNEY'S CLASSIC

50TH FANTASIA ANNIVERSARY

An officially authorised sculpture in hand-painted pewter and lead crystal with 22 carat gold accents.

It is the greatest animated masterpiece of all time. Now, to celebrate the golden anniversary of Fantasia, The Walt Disney Company has authorised Franklin Mint to create an unprecedented sculpture of Mickey Mouse as The Sorcerer's Apprentice – who boldly dons his master's cap and unleashes unbounded magic as he rides upon a surging wave of glory.

The Mickey Mouse sculpture is meticulously crafted in fine pewter and hand-painted to capture the brilliant detail of his bright red gown, the sorcerer's cap with stars and moon, and his legendary white-gloved hands. He stands atop a wondrous wave of lead crystal. Between his outstretched hands springs a shimmering arc accented with 22 carat gold. The issue price is £145, payable in convenient monthly instalments. Join in this spectacular tribute to the never-ending magic of Walt Disney's Fantasia.
